THE PEDEMONTANA BIKEPATH: FROM VITTORIO VENETO TO TRIESTE

WITH THE BIKE ALONG THE PEDEMONTANA BIKEPATH

Self-guided tour

Bike tour

270-270 km

●○○ Easy

Duration: 7 days / 6 nights

DESCRIPTION

This cycling tour takes you from Vittorio Veneto, at the foot of the Pre-Alps and known for its historic old town, to Trieste, the Central European port city on the Adriatic Sea. The route follows much of the wellknown Pedemontana cycle path. Along the way, you will ride through the characteristic villages of Maniago, famed worldwide for its cutlery production, then continue on through Gemona del Friuli and Cividale del Friuli, both of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The tour ends in Trieste, where Central European culture meets Mediterranean flair. The tour follows known cycle paths and sometimes secondary roads.

DETAILED ROUTES

Day 1: Arrival in Vittorio Veneto

Individual arrival in Vittorio Veneto.

Day 2: Vittorio Veneto - Maniago

(approx. 63 km)

This stage crosses a varied landscape between the Alpine foothills and gentle hills. From Vittorio Veneto's historic center, you cycle through vineyards and small villages along the Pedemontana before reaching Polcenigo, known for its basket-weaving tradition and its historic buildings near the Livenza River and Gorgazzo springs. The route continues to Aviano with its 10th-century castle, then towards Malnisio, home to the first Venetian hydroelectric plant, now a technology museum. The stage ends in Maniago, the renowned "city of knives."

Day 3: Maniago - San Daniele del Friuli

(approx. 40 km)

Today you cycle from Maniago through a peaceful hilly landscape, first reaching Spilimbergo, whose historic center and renowned mosaic school welcome you. You then continue along quiet country roads that lead through fields, small villages, and gentle climbs, with frequent views of the mountains and the Friulian countryside. Finally, you arrive in San Daniele del Friuli, where the charming old town and its world-famous prosciutto await you.

Day 4: San Daniele del Friuli - Tarcento

(approx. 43 km)

After breakfast, you leave the town of San Daniele del Friuli and head toward Gemona, which impresses with its historic old town and imposing cathedral. Along the way, you follow quiet roads and cycle paths that lead through fields, vineyards, and small villages. After visiting Gemona, you continue your ride through idyllic landscapes until you reach Tarcento, a charming town known for its historic center, the Patriarchs' Castle, and traditional Friulian hospitality.

Day 5: Tarcento - Gorizia

(approx. 67 km)

Today's stage takes you to Cividale del Friuli, a UNESCO World Heritage city with medieval lanes, the famous Devil's Bridge, and numerous historical sights. After visiting Cividale, you continue your ride through idyllic landscapes with views of the Julian Alps, eventually reaching Gorizia, a charming border town with a historic old center and an impressive castle.

Day 6: Gorizia - Trieste

(approx. 56 km)

The final stage takes you from Gorizia to Trieste, passing through the diverse landscapes of the Collio and Karst regions, with their vineyards, rolling hills, and small villages. Along the way, you enjoy sweeping views of the Adriatic Sea. The tour concludes in Trieste, the elegant seaside port city renowned for its historic old town, Miramare Castle, and distinctive Central European charm — a perfect finale to the journey.

Day 7: Departure

Individual departure or possibility to extend your stay.
